

Pre-traineeship Program

Disability Support Worker – Traineeship opportunities

Overview

Have you always wanted to work in the disability sector but don't know how to get a foot in the door?

This program may be the entry point you are looking for.

This pre-traineeship program has been designed for those looking for entry level part-time traineeship employment with CA Care.

CA Care offer a range of NDIS services across the Central Coast Region. CA Care are focused on providing support to people with a disability in a holistic manner to recognise and promote their value as individuals. CA Care are looking to expand, and they have a number of opportunities for committed trainees to start their career in the disability sector.

ET Australia and CA Care have partnered to recruit, screen and refer suitable applicants to participate in this pre-traineeship program with a view to CA Care employing participants from the pre-traineeship program in part time traineeship positions.

The program enables students to:

- familiarise themselves with work in the disability sector and the requirements of the employer
- receive support and advice to see whether the type of traineeship (CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support (Disability)) is suitable prior to making a full commitment

- transition into part-time traineeship employment (ie for the students who are selected for traineeship employment on conclusion of the pre-traineeship program)
- achieve 2 of the units during the pre-traineeship program that are core units from the CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support (Disability) qualification

This training program is provided at no cost to eligible participants and is subsidised by the NSW Government under the Smart and Skilled initiative.

Included in the program is a student 'voluntary' police check which will be conducted during the program to ensure suitability for work in the industry.

In addition to the accredited training, students will learn about the role of a disability support care worker, they will be introduced to some of the workplace policies and procedures they will be required to follow if successful in gaining a traineeship position, and they will gain valuable employability skills that are required for any role.

Students are not paid to participate in the pre-traineeship program, but if a student displays the qualities and attributes that CA Care are looking for during the pre-traineeship program, then offers of traineeship employment will be made.

Students who successfully transition into traineeship employment will be paid to undertake training on the job in CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support (Disability).

Entry Requirements

All applicants must attend an information session and an interview for selection into the program.

Disability work can be emotionally and physically challenging and is very hands on. Applicants must have the functional capacity and fitness to perform the tasks and duties necessary to work in the disability sector.

Applicants who, due to fitness or functional capacity, would place themselves or others at risk of harm or injury would be unsuitable for the program.

Applicants must;

- be prepared to undergo a student / volunteer police check
- be available for part time work and if successful with traineeship employment be prepared to work a rotating roster with varying hours (including weekend and overnight work)
- hold a current NSW driver's licence and have own reliable vehicle

CA Care are looking for people who will be dedicated to supporting individuals from various cultural/religious backgrounds. They are looking for people with demonstrated, life experience or those who have a true desire to work in a supportive role. Applicants must be prepared to support individuals with mental health diagnosis and/or complex disabilities. They must have the ability to work independently and as part of a team. They are looking for people who are passionate about making a positive difference in someone's day. Applicants will need to be hard working, dedicated, have a positive attitude, enjoy variety as each day can be different, enjoy a challenge as the work is not always easy but the personal rewards of changing someone's life are significant. Applicants must have a willingness and desire to learn.

In addition, if successful with traineeship employment they must be available for active awakes, sleep-over shifts, short shifts, afternoon and morning shifts and day program shifts.

Successful candidates who are offered traineeship employment must be willing to obtain a First Aid Certificate, a Working With Children Check and a criminal history check, all of which are required for traineeship employment.

Eligibility

To be eligible for a Smart and Skilled subsidised training place, at the time of enrolment an individual must:

- Be an Australian citizen, a permanent Australian resident, a humanitarian visa holder or a New Zealand citizen, and
- Be aged 15 years or older, and
- Live or work in New South Wales, and
- No longer be at school or equivalent

Employment Opportunities

Students who display the qualities and attributes the employer are looking for will be offered disability support worker entry-level part-time traineeship positions. Those who are successful in securing traineeship employment will be undertaking duties that include but are not limited to:

- Assist with the daily personal care of clients including healthcare and hygiene
- Provide physical and emotional support to clients
- Promote client independence
- Work with the clients to develop or maintain certain skills to allow them to live as independently as possible
- Assist with outings and other social activities
- Maintaining a safe and clean home environment
- Attending community events and developing relationships within the community

Students who are not successful in gaining an offer of traineeship employment on completion of the pre-traineeship program will have basic skills and knowledge to allow them to apply for similar entry level / traineeship roles.

Further Study

Students offered the traineeship positions with the employer on completion of the pre-traineeship program will study CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support (Disability).
