Overview

We are really excited to offer an evening aged care program. This unique fee-free* program, delivered onsite at Killarney Court, Killarney Vale, has been designed to meet Alino Living's need for entry level care support staff.

Alino Living is home to five residential aged care communities located across the Central Coast in Killarney Vale, Lake Haven, Wyoming and Norah Head. Delivering a brighter future for hundreds of residents and team members, Adelene Court, Killarney Court, Rumbalara House, Lake Haven Court and Central Coast Community Care Association and Vietnam Veterans KPVC have merged to become one organisation. Alino Living is one of the largest independent not-for-profit aged care organisations on the Central Coast of NSW.

The classroom component of this employment program will be delivered onsite in their Killarney Court facility. The work placement component will be hosted by the Alino Living facilities, providing hands on training with a view to employment as a Care Support Worker with the organisation.

ET Australia and Alino Living share a vision for how the entry-level workforce needs to be prepared and trained. This has resulted in a collaborative partnership between the two organisations.

To be considered for employment with Alino Living, students must participate in a CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing) training program. There will be opportunities for employment with Alino Living for the best suited students. There is the possibility that employment offers will be made prior to the completion of the program.

This is a fantastic opportunity to become part of the Alino Living team. The program allows both the organisation and the student to make a well-informed decision about any offer of employment.

Students will learn how to meet the personal support needs of the older person, support their independence and well-being whilst using safe working practices for direct care work.

Alino Living's policies and procedures will be embedded into the training to prepare the students for 120 hours of work placement.

The combination of classroom-based learning with work placement provides the foundations required to work with aged people.

*Training in priority qualifications is fee-free and fully funded by the NSW and Commonwealth Governments.

Please note, the CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support qualification is superseded. Students can still enrol into the superseded qualification and students will be contacted to transition into the current qualification CHC33021 Certificate III in Individual Support when it is available for delivery by ET Australia.

Entry Requirements

There are no formal education requirements for this qualification however, all successful applicants will be required to:

Undertake a criminal history check

The Australian Government Department of Health and Ageing requires that any person who provides care within an aged care service must have a police check prior to being present 'on site'. Students must not have previous convictions which would exclude them from working in the aged care sector as outlined in the Aged Care Act 1997 (murder, sexual assault, any other form of assault which has resulted in a sentence of imprisonment or any other conviction which would be considered, on the basis of risk and relevance, to render them unsuitable for a vocational placement in an aged care setting). Please note, if a student has any outcome/s at all appearing on their criminal history check, ET Australia must seek approval from the host work placement organisation for the student to participate in work placement. ET Australia approaches cases such as this with sensitivity and the identity of the student is not disclosed during this process.

Formally apply

All applicants are required to complete an application form, participate in an information session and an interview for selection into the program. Interviews are conducted with each applicant to determine their suitability for the program and to ensure the program meets their career aspirations.

Physical attributes

Functional capacity and fitness to perform the tasks and duties necessary to work in the aged care sector including physical capability to perform CPR for 2 minutes on a mannequin placed on the floor. Applicants who, due to fitness or functional capacity, would place themselves or others at risk of harm or injury would be unsuitable for the program.

Digital skills

Sound digital skills are needed as students will be required to undertake activities such as using the internet to conduct research, send / receive emails (all of which can be done using a smart phone).

Language, literacy and numeracy

Sound language, literacy and numeracy skills are required and it is recommended that applicants have good communication and interpersonal skills.

Provide evidence of vaccination

Students will need to provide immunization documentation prior to program commencement. At a minimum students are required to have a current influenza vaccination, plus students must provide evidence of having had 3 doses of a COVID-19 vaccine as per the Public Health Order (COVID-19 Care Services) No. 2, 2022. <https://www.health.nsw.gov.au/Infectious/covid-19/Pages/racf-latest-advice.aspx>

In order to complete the practical components of this program, applicants must demonstrate a level of maturity and discretion.

Employment Opportunities

The purpose of this program is to assist Alino Living with their recruitment of entry level staff. Alino Living intends to employ suitable candidates from the program as Care Support Workers. Offers of employment will be made to students who display the qualities and attributes they are looking for in entry level staff.

Other examples of employment opportunities include Accommodation Support Worker, Assistant in Nursing, Care Assistant / Worker, Care Service Employees, Nursing Assistant, Personal Care Assistant, Residential Care Worker.

Further Study

Students who successfully complete this qualification may choose to further their studies;

- Higher level study in a related area such as CHC43015 Certificate IV in Ageing Support.
- CHC33015 Certificate III in Individualised Support e.g. Disability or Home and Community specialisations.
- Specialised qualifications at a higher AQF level from the Community Services Training Package.
