

Self-Paced Aged Care Training

CHC43015 Certificate IV in Ageing Support

By 2050, over 1 million workers will be needed to support Australia's ageing population, meaning strong job security and more career opportunities than ever before.[^]

About the Course

ET Australia offers a flexible, self-paced training program designed for experienced aged care workers who are ready to advance their careers. You'll build the leadership, planning and care coordination skills needed for supervisory roles in a growing sector. This course is delivered through self-paced, independent study supported by a qualified Trainer and Assessor and regular workplace visits for assessment.

Flexible Learning Structure

This program has no set classroom days and is designed to be completed at your own pace. You'll receive a personalised Training Plan to guide your progress and ongoing support from your Trainer and Assessor through a combination of online communication, face-to-face visits, and regular check-ins, scheduled at a time that works best for you.

What You'll Gain

- A nationally recognised CHC43015 Certificate IV in Ageing Support
- Skills to move into leadership roles in aged care
- Deeper knowledge of person-centred support planning
- Practical application of learning in your workplace
- Pathways to further study, including Diploma of Community Services or Diploma of Nursing

Employment Opportunities and Pathways

Potential roles of employment include Care Team Leader, Care Supervisor, Assistant in Nursing (AIN), Program Coordinator, and Lifestyle Coordinator. Graduates may also pursue higher Diploma level qualifications such as HLT54121 Diploma in Nursing or Diploma level studies within the Community Services sector.

Fees and Funding

This training is subsidised by the NSW Government. To be eligible for funding, you must be an Australian citizen, permanent resident, humanitarian visa holder, or New Zealand citizen; aged 15 years or older; living or working in NSW; and not currently at school.

For more information and to check your eligibility, visit ET Australia's website or contact ET Australia directly. Fee exemptions and scholarships are available for eligible students.

Student Support

Each training program is supported by a dedicated Training Officer who is there to help you every step of the way. Additional support from your Trainer/Assessor is available outside of check-ins, and referrals to external support services are available if needed.

Is This Course Right For You?

To thrive in this course, it's recommended that you:

- Are working in aged care and have completed a Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing)
- Have at least one year's industry experience working as a care worker or similar
- Have strong time management and self-motivation
- Can work independently without a classroom structure
- Have digital literacy and access to workplace clients and team members

To enrol in this course, it is a requirement that you have:

- Support from your employer and supervisor
- Access to 3+ clients and a team of co-workers

Delivery Mode

Independent study supported by qualified Trainer & Assessor

Work Placement

120 hours minimum

Duration

18-24 months with the ability to complete in a shorter timeframe

[^]Aged Care Industry Skills Shortage

Ready to Start Your Journey? Contact Us today.

Phone: (02) 4323 1233 Email: training@etaustralia.com Website: www.etaustralia.com

Connect with us:

ET Australia

